LONG WALK IN OFFICE.

"If I had a cent for every walk during office hours every day I'd soon be able to retire," is a remark frequently heard from men and women who are kept on their feet while at business. The general impression is that the distance traveled daily is very great. And so it may be. But the simple experiment of carrying a pedometer for a few weeks will probably show that one's income at a cent a mile would not be worth collecting until the end of a year.

A downtown office man has just finished an experiment of this nature. He carried a pedometer six weeks, registering its total each night. At the end of that time it was found that the distance traveled, though varying greatly from day to day, came to a fairly even average at the end of each week.

How many miles do you suppose he walked on the day of his highest record? Twenty? Thirty? Fifty? No, only nine miles. The lowest' record came the very next day and was a mile and a half. But the average for each week was thirty-three and onethird miles, or an average of six and a half miles for each working day. The six weeks showed totals as follows: 391/2, 271/2, 37, 34, 321/2, 30, or an aggregate of 200 miles and a half mile over. At the end of six weeks, therefore, he would have collected $2 at a cent a mile.

In the course of a year this office traveling represents an impressive walking tour, with its total of 1,733 miles. If made as a continuous trip across country it would take him from New York to Bismarck. .. D., or to Galveston, Tex.-Brook! \ a le.

THE BREATH OF LIFE.

It's a significant fact that the strongest animal of its size, the gorilla, also has the largest lungs. Power ful lungs means powerful creatures. How to keep the breathing organs right should be man's chiefest study. Like thousands of others, Mrs. Ora A. Stephens, of Port Williams, O., has learned how to do this. She writes: "Three bottles of Dr. King's New Discovery stopped my cough of two years and cured me of what my friends thought consumption. O, it's grand, for throat and lung troubles." Guaranteed by Barclay & Groover, druggists. Price 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

African Blood Brotherhood.

The method of making blood brotherhood among the Galla and Somali has its peculiarities. It is described by William Astor Chanler in "Through Jungle and Desert." Lokomagul on behalf of his people and I on behalf of my own each soized in our right hands a round stone. Upon the stones we liberally expectorated. Each then passed his stone to his following, who did likewise. We then exchanged stones, and each, holding the stone in his right hand, with his left dug a hole in the soil, meanwhile uttering words of supposed magic import. In these holes we finally placed the stones and covered them with sand. We then grasped hands and assured each other that we were the best friends possible.

The Editor and the Tramp.

Bret Harte's first stories appeared in the San Francisco Overland Monthly. Then he was appointed editor of this magazine. That was in 1869. About this same period two or three weekly newspapers were struggling for exist-

One day the office boy went to the editor of the Soaring Eagle and said:

"There is a tramp at the door, and he says he has had nothing to eat for six days."

"Fetch him in," said the editor, "If we can find out how he does it we can run this blamed paper for another week!"

An inspector arrived unexpectedly at a Scottish jail. He asked the solitary warder for the governor. "He's away fushin'," was the answer.

"Well, I'll see the prisoners," said the inspector. "Him! He's out, sir."

"Out? The prisoner out? Why, has he escaped?"

"Ach, no, sir; he's just awa' wi' the governor at the fushin', carryin' the Florida Book Supply Co.

"I have been trying to get some firm here to put in a line of your shoes, as we have a hard time getting a good shoe in this town. I believe if you will take the matter up, you can arrange with Messrs. & Co. to handle "Diamond Brands." I have no interest in the matter only that I want to buy a good shoe once in a while. You will remember that I handled your shoes when in business in Quanah, and know what they are." REV. WALTER GRIFFITH,

Could the superiority of Diamond Brand shoes be more convincingly shown? You are just as anxious for good shoes as Rev. Griffith and it is equally worth your while to insist that your dealer supply them.
